BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.

THIRD DAY.

Reports from Home Missionaries.

(Reported especially for the DAILY NEWS

by its own Reporter.)

FAYETTEVILLE, Nov. 8th, 1872.

The most of to-day has been spent in hearing reports from the various missionaries, and devising plans for increase of church extension.

The reports from the various missionary fields were very encouraging to the denomination, there having been about seven thousand additions to the church, and a large gain over any previous year of contributions to the objects of the Convention, making in the aggregate over fifteen thousand dollars.

There are now left but very few Baptist Associations in the State that are not co-operating with the Convention.

This has been accomplished by the Corresponding Secretary, Rev. Jas. D.

Hatham, and Mr. J. H. Mills, Editor of the Biblical Recorder, both of whom have traveled in every section of the State during the past year, assisting and directing in the conducting of Associations, and laying the objects of the Convention before the people.

There have been several new houses of worship erected, and it is thought,

under the direction of the Church Exension Board many more will be completed during the coming year.

Shaw Collegiate Institute, for the education of colored ministers, located at Raleigh, was very highly complimented in remarks by Rev. W. A.

Weaver to-day.

The subject of endowment of Wake Forest College has been taken up and will be determined upon to-morrow.

LAST DAY OF THE SESSION.

FAYETTEVILLE, Nov. 10.

The churches to-day are all pretty well filled. Dr. Wingate preached at the Baptist, Dr. Pritchard at the Methodist, and Rev. Levi Thorne, of Newbern, at the Presbyterian church this morning.

Dr. McDowell, of Wadesboro Female

Seminary, preached the closing sermon of the Convention to a very large audience.

After the sermon, Dr. Brooks, President of the Convention, delivered a few very touching remarks, and the delegates bade each other "farewell," singing "All hail the power of Jesus' name."

The scene was very touching as one after another joined in warm embrace and wept.

This session of the Convention is said to be in many respects the best of them

all. The kind-heartedness of this people will never be forgotten.

THE EPIPHIPPIC.

The Malady Becoming General.

DISEASED ANIMALS RECOVERING

Yesterday morning the Epizootic made its appearance in nearly two thirds of the private stables of the city, and we may safely say that over two thirds of the horses in the city are attacked. Those that have careful treatment and are properly attended to, seem to suffer but little, and owners have no apprehension of fatality or even injury to their animals.

Notwithstanding the unfounded fears of our country friends, many horses came into the city yesterday, some from ten miles in the country with the Hipporhinorrhoea on them.

We learn that the malady is fast

STATE MATTERS.

THE Southern Home calls Charlotte the "little London of the South."

The horse disease is abating in Goldsboro.

GUILFORD gave a Radical gain on the 5th of 382.

CLEVELAND county gave O'Connor 17 votes.

ROBEESON gave Grant a gain of 500 over the August vote.

THERE was a gain of 406 in Orange for Grant over the Caldwell vote.

WAYNE gave Grant 1,934, Greeley 1,311. A Radical gain of 423.

THE tournament ball in Wilmington will take place on Friday night at the City Hall.

PERQUIMANS gave Grant a majority of 475. A Radical gain of 197 over August.

BEEF is sold in Jefferson at 4, 4 1/2 and 5 cents per pound. We intend migrating there.

THE official vote for Columbus county stands Greeley 730, Grant 777. Grant's majority 47.

THERE are to be several new Lodges of the Knights of Pythias in different portions of the State.

THE Goldsboro Messenger says that Curtis H. Brogden rejoiced much over the result of the recent election.

THE Grand Lodge of F. and A. Masons of this State convenes in Raleigh on the first Monday in December.

GATES county gave Greeley a vote of 618, Grant 497. A gain for Grant of 105 votes over the August election.

THE Mountain Messenger, published at Jefferson, N. C., has "Greeley and Brown" still at its masthead. We glory in its spunk.

HON. A. M. WADDELL is to deliver a Masonic Address in Wilmington on St. John's day, the 27th of December. So says the Star.

THE Rev. R. S. Moran, D. D., will deliver the annual address before the Cape Fear Agricultural Association on Thursday.

LINCOLN county gave Greeley a majority of some 150. A falling off of the Conservative majority of some 50 on the August election.

THE receipts of cotton in Charlotte last month amounted to 5,100 bales. This is larger than any previous month since the war, says the Southern Home.

GOLDSBORO is to have a necktie festival to-morrow night. It is not on the "carpet bag" order, however. It is intended to raise money for the St. Stephen's Church.

They have a regularly appointed committee of reception in Wilmington this week for the benefit of persons visiting the Fair, and who may not have secured lodgings.

WILMINGTON thus far has escaped the horse malady. As a consequence, its Local Editors have not been put to the trouble of spelling the infernal hard names that have been given to the disease.

JOHN RUTHERFORD, Esq., has donated additional 200 acres of land to Rutherford College, located at Happy Home, Burke county, N. C. The institution is under the management of Rev. R. L. Abernathy, President.

THE Southern Home is pained to chronicle the death of Col. E. Erson, of Lincoln county, from rapid consumption. He was Lieutenant Colonel of the 52d N. C. regiment, and was distinguished for his courage and coolness.

CATAWBA county, in the late election, gave 1,252 votes for Greeley, 441 for Grant, and 1 for O'Connor. In August Merrimon received 1,266 and Caldwell 422, showing a slight Democratic falling off and a small Republican gain.

On Friday last Jerry Thompson and York Martin, colored, were hung in Rutherford for the murder of a colored man named Samuel Martin some time last Spring. They received their sentence at the hands of Judge Logan.

THE Editor of the Jefferson Messenger evidently intends going into the "produce" business. He says he wants wheat, rye, oats, corn, buckwheat, bacon, lard, butter, eggs, dried fruit, chestnuts, etc., in exchange for subscriptions to the Messenger.

THE Wilmington Journal of Sunday says: "Captain Morrison, of the W. C. & R. R. R. says that Steve Lowrey and Andrew Strong, the remaining two of the outlaws, were both at Moss Neck yesterday morning when the train passed there. They were heavily armed, but evidently not on the war path at the time. They conversed very freely on all subjects, being particular in their inquiries in regard to the health of our city."

THE Southern Home says: "Prof. Kerr exhibited at the Charlotte Fair some specimens of iron sand found on Pamlico Sound, Beaufort county. This attracted the attention of Mr. Wm. W. Biggs of the firm of Biggs, Holland and Stuart, Liverpool, England, who was present at the Fair. We have seen a letter from him to Prof. Kerr in relation to the working and shipping to Liverpool of this iron sand. The exhibition at Charlotte will most probably result in the development of a new industry in North Carolina. This is but one of the thousand ways in which the Geological Survey benefits the State."

THE Asheville Pioneer, Rep., has a blood and thunder account of a fight on the 5th inst., between two government officers, deputies E. W. Ray and Noah Rice, and some fifteen or more men in Madison county, charged with Klu Kluxing, who were fired, resulting in the serious if not fatal wounding of Robert Jarvis, John Dadd and Landon Jarvis, and probably one or two others. The officers succeeded in arresting two men named Ingle and English, who were lodged in jail. The Pioneer concludes the statement of the combat by saying that, "it is proper to state the facts given are stated by the two officers."

A Letter from Gov. Vance.

Editors of the News:

GENTLEMEN:—My attention has been called to an article in the Statesville American, purporting to be a letter of Oct. 22d from that place to the New York Times, and containing an attack upon me, as being implicated in certain fraudulent transactions with Geo. W. Swepson.

The letter from me to Judge Henry, embraced in the article, and upon which the assault is based, carries on its face a refutation of the whole slander. The zealous writer felt, therefore, the necessity of sustaining his allegations by various collateral assertions, and which, perhaps, requires some notice at my hands.

I have some difficulty at the outset in deciding whether the writer is the greater liar or fool. I incline to the former conclusion, but I will cite a few specimens from the article in support, also, of the more charitable opinion. First, and comprehensively, however, the charge that I am or ever have been interested for or with Geo. W. Swepson is wholly and absolutely false. I have no interest whatever, of any kind, in any transaction with Swepson, nor ever had. That Swepson purchased from T. D. Carter the Cranberry property is also false. Gen. R. F. Hoke, T. J. Sumner, and E. N. Hutchinson purchased the property, and Swepson had an interest only by some private arrangement with them. The price for Carter's interest was not $40,000, but $44,000, and for the remaining interests, extinguishment of hostile claims, &c., they paid, or agreed to pay, about $64,000 more.

The charge that I was associated with Woodfin as Carter's counsel is also unqualifiedly false. I never appeared with him in any of the half dozen suits growing out of the Cranberry matters. Before I was employed in any of them, Carter informed me that he had detected Woodfin in the act of betraying him—selling him out—to Swepson, and had discharged him.

As for my attempt to use Woodfin to procure a compromise of Carter's suits, I know nothing of it, never did so, nor do I believe any one else ever did.

As to the letter to Judge Henry, and how it came to be written: my client informed me that the proposition had been made to him that if the Commission would receive the Cranberry property from him, Swepson, at some big figure, that he, Swepson, would pay off the claims against the property and make it over to the Railroad Company, in part payment of the millions he owed it; and Carter instructed me, as his attorney, to see the Commissioners, ascertain what they would receive the property at, and then see Swepson.

Now read the letter that is quite correct, barring a little error of two years in the date. It was written, not in 1872, as set forth in the indictment, but in 1870: "CHARLOTTE, Sept. 5, 1872. JUDGE HENRY:

Dear Sir: I also am about to put an end to the famous Cranberry. Swepson will clear off Carter's claim, and put in that property, in part payment to the Commissioners, if they will take it at a big price. I am interested only if Carter, who will get his money only if the trade is made with the Commissioners.

As one of them, what will you agree to receive the property at? I mean clear of all encumbrances. I have got Gen. Vance to see the others, except Woodfin, and will go to see Swepson as soon as I get a definite proposal from the Commissioners. In my opinion, anything you can get from S. at any price, is just that much saved, and that you could afford to give him $200,000.

Please write me at once what you would be willing to do, that I may show it to Swep, as the basis of a trade, should I be able to effect one.

You know his interest to be three-fourths of the whole property, the other belonging to Russell. Oblige me by writing by return mail, as I shall be waiting for your reply to start to Baltimore. (Signed.) Z. B. VANCE."

I did not keep Judge Henry's reply, nor do I recollect the exact language of it, but it was in substance to agree to anything the rest of the commission might accept. And was there anything improper in my proposition as above? Swepson was repented and generally believed to be insolvent. The property was proposed to the commission was purchased by the owners for about $108,000, and they now ask for it $250,000. Events fully justify my then opinion that they could well have afforded to give an insolvent even $200,000 for so valuable a piece of property—a sum more than the whole amount yet realized, or ever likely to be realized, by that commission.

The object of this assault upon me, at this time, must be sufficiently obvious to the public; and I could disclose the name of the Democratic article, too—wherever the mere Radical tool and instrument may have been—but I will not further intrude upon valuable space in your columns, nor upon the time and patience of your readers. The public will surely agree with me that this attempt to injure me is a gross libel and an egregious and contemptible failure.

Respectfully, Z. B. VANCE. Charlotte, Nov. 9th, 1872.

The Washington Patriot ceased to exist on Monday morning. The Editor, in bidding adieu to the public, says: "After two years of earnest effort to establish a Democratic journal upon a solid basis at the Capital, and to render it at least partially worthy of the high mission in which it engaged, we are pained to confess that the experiment has failed to realize our hopes, and to announce that the Patriot will be suspended after to-day."

SLATE AND HAIR DEPOT.

The Raleigh Daily News.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1872.

WIDDER SPRIGGINS' DAUGHTER.

'Twas on a beautiful summer morn,
When the sun was shining bright,
And all among the pumpkin vines
The bumble bees were humming;
I took an early half-mile walk,
As every body'd order;
When in the cow-path I was met
By Widder Spriggins' daughter.

Her eyes were black as David's ink,
Her cheeks were red as fire;
And one smuck of her luscious lips
Would bribe a judge or jury.
I how'd—she chuck'd just the way
Her nice old Mar had taught her;
She smiled—and oh! my heart was gone
To Widder Spriggins' daughter.

Says I, "My dear, how do you do?"
Says she, "I'm feeling fine."
Says I, "Of all the gas I know,
You look the most divine."
I snatched a kiss—she slapped my face,
In fact, just as she'd order;
"Behave yourself, how dare you, sir!"
Cried Widder Spriggins' daughter.

Just then an old rampancous sheep,
Who had been feeding near, sir,
Squar'd off, and like a ton of bricks
He took me with his head, sir;
I landed in a pond, chuck full
Of frogs and filthy water,
And then she stood and laffed and harf'd,
That Widder Spriggins' daughter.

I rather guess I crawled out quick,
Picked up my hat and mizzled,
While love's bright torch so lately lit
Out in the frog pond fizzled.
Well, she was married yesterday,
A lawyer chap has got her;
So I'll forget, if not forgive,
The Widder Spriggins' daughter.
